

P.O. Box 6117 | Oakland, CA 94603

(415) 716-6133 | www.nccbtu.org

Dearest Friends and Supporters

We invite you to join us and celebrate at our Awards and Scholarship Dinner on February 24, 2023. This year we honor the men and women that truly make a difference

Building Labor and Communities

Dee Johnson, Lend A Hand Foundation

Marlon McWilson, Community Giving Foundation

Eric Shanks, Cypress Mandela Training Center

Tony Thurmond, Superintendent of Public Schools

The CBTU-NCC is a 501(c)3 nonprofit, and is known for organizing workers via workforce development into the trade unions; research and education that aids unionist to better their roles within trade unions movements; social justice that focus on helping to improve the quality of life of individuals from the community, and environmental justice that provides health and safety training through the CARAT Team of the CBTU to respond to hazardous and toxic waste problems in our community.

The CBTU-NCC is partnered with some of the leading health and safety training providers such as the International Chemical Workers Council for Workers Health and Safety Education through, Cypress Mandela Training Center who also specializes in pre-apprenticeship workforce development. Together we train 35-65 students every 16 weeks at Cypress Mandela's 80,000 square feet facility located in Oakland, California.

None of this would be possible without your support, we look forward to your continued support by celebrating with us. Friday, February 24, 2023, at the Just Dance Ballroom, 2500 Embarcadero, Oakland California 94606, no host cocktails 5:30 pm -6pm., event 6-10 pm.

Enclosed please find your RSVP form.

Fraternity,

Cloudell Douglas
Committee Chair

